The Speed Merchant Aero Wind Tunnel Test Labs (www.speedmerchantaero.com), now in its 5th year of operation, is a state of the art Aerodynamics Testing Facility designed with the needs of the Competitive Cyclist and Triathlete in mind. It is founded and operated by a group of Engineers and Scientists who just so happen to also be competitive cyclists themselves. Besides the scientifically accurate measurements of aero drag numbers, their experience as cyclists allows the tunnel's clients access to a world of knowledge, experience, and advice that can prove invaluable to Road Cyclists and Triathletes looking to improve their position on the bike and to get faster whether racing on the Road, in Time Trials, or in Triathlons.
